

Pennant Update Week 7

Bowral Bowling Club hosted an exciting afternoon of Pennant Competition for round 7 of the competition on the 5th May 2018

Both Bowral teams were up against Campbelltown City Bowling Club teams.

In the Grade 6 Pennants after a colossal tussle all afternoon Campbelltown emerged victors with a one point win 51-50. The Bowral team led by David Coltman won 20-10. The Kevin Stafford team drew 20-20 and the Russell Fahey team were defeated 22-11. With seven points for an overall win, Campbelltown collected 8.5 points and Bowral 1.5. The ladder now has Bowral leading with 41.5 points from Campbelltown on 30 and Taralga on 27.5. Bowral has a bye in week 8 so will see the rivals closing to within a point or two.

In Grade 7 Section 3 there was an equally titanic game. Half way through the afternoon Bowral were trailing by 20 shots. The teams fought back and on the final bowl of the final end secured a 59-59 draw. Bob Edwards's team, who won that final end, won 23-15. Dan Ticehurst and team won 22-21 and Gordon Lewis went down 23-14. Points were Bowral 5.5 and Campbelltown 4.5. The table now stands with Campbelltown leading on 52 points from Camden RSL on 52 and Bowral 42. There are no byes in this section, so the Bowral team are hoping for good results over the last three matches so that they can catch Campbelltown.
